Applying for Grade _____ for _____ School Year

Application for Admission Kindergarten

We are delighted that you are considering an Epiphany Day School education for your child. Our Admissions Office is available to answer your questions at 337-364-6841.

Admission decisions are based on review of the completed application portfolio. The following requirements must be met before a final decision can be rendered.

1. Schedule a tour and make an appointment for your child to be evaluated for admission.
2. Complete this application and send it to EDS or apply online at office@eds-ni.com
3.
 - $25.00 application fee (non-refundable)
 - Application form
 - Most recent report card or developmental progress report if available
 - Copies of all prior testing and assessments, including developmental readiness, aptitude, and achievement testing, if applicable
 - Any additional information you think would be useful to us in evaluating your child. For example: writing sample, art portfolio or special project completed by the student.
3. All preschool students must be 3 years old by September 30th and potty-trained by the start of school.

As soon as your child's application portfolio has been received by the Admissions Office and your visit and child's evaluation are complete, we will review your child's application. You will then be notified of the school's decision.
