Application for Admission Grades 1-5

We are delighted that you are considering an Epiphany Day School education for your child. Our Admissions Office is available to answer your questions at 337-364-6841.

Admission decisions are based on review of the completed application portfolio. The following requirements must be met before a final decision can be rendered.

1. Schedule a tour and make an appointment for your child to be evaluated for admission.
2. Complete this application and send it to EDS or apply online at office@eds-ni.com
 - $25.00 application fee (non-refundable)
 - Application form
 - Student's transcripts
 - Most recent report card
 - Copies of all prior testing and assessments, including developmental readiness, aptitude, and achievement testing
 - Teacher recommendation
 - Any additional information you think would be useful to us in evaluating your child. For example: writing sample, art portfolio or special project completed by the student.

As soon as your child's application portfolio has been received by the Admissions Office and your visit and child's evaluation are complete, we will review your child's application. You will then be notified of the school's decision.
